

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT TO ALL MEMBERS of
Hong Kong Linux Industry Association

AGM on 14 December, 2005 as usual

Some of our members may receive an email from Mr. David Chow regarding the upcoming Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Hong Kong Linux Industry Association (HKLIA) on 14 December, 2005. Mr. Chow had made invalid and false statements about myself and other members. This is not the first time. It caused repeated confusion and nuisance to everybody. I am sorry for him.

I declare that all the procedures and doings leading to the convening of the AGM of 14 December 2005 are proper and genuine. I have been acting as the Chairman of HKLIA for more than 9 months not for my personal gain but for the Association and the Linux industry. I am here to call upon all of you to attend the AGM at 6:30PM on 14 December, 2005 at Shing Hin Restaurant, 14/F, Li Ka Shing Tower, Polytechnic University of Hong Kong, Hung Hom, Kowloon to resolve this issue once and for all. You will find out the truth at the meeting. You have the right to vote for the person as the Chairman who you think will serve you and the association the best.

AGM is the legitimate way to resolve all these differences. Mr. Chow asked you not to come because he wants to create confusion and destruct our solidarity.

The Association needs unity. Linux will prosper. Let us march forward hand in hand to achieve our goals as stated in our mission. Don't let rumors cover your eyes and tie your hands.

Look forward to seeing you then.
