

Organizers:

28th November 2007 (Wednesday)

Medium of Language: Cantonese with English terminology

Time	Topic
1400 – 1415	Registration &amp; Exhibition
1415 – 1420	Welcome Remark Mr. Vincent Shiu, Editorial Director, Linux Pilot Ltd.
1420 – 1430	Opening Remark Mr. Lee Jee Yin Alex, Chief Systems Manager Office of the Government Chief Information Officer, HKSAR
1430 – 1440	Souvenir Presentation &amp; Photo Taking
1440 – 1525	Keynote Speech 1 : Green Computing Impact to Your Business Mr. Wing Ho, Executive, Global MidMarket Business, IBM China/Hong Kong Limited Keynote Speech 2 : Building an Energy Efficient Computing Environment Mr. Gary Chan, Executive IT Architect, Systems Architect Leader, Systems & Technology Group, GCG, IBM China/Hong Kong Limited
1525 – 1555	Green Computing as part of Corporate Responsibility Ms. Teresa Au, Head of Corporate Responsibility & Sustainability Asia Pacific Region, The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited
1555 – 1640	Make Every Connection a Green Connection Mr. Philip Wong, Principal Architect, Cisco Systems (HK) Limited,
1640 – 1650	Break &amp; Exhibition Time
1650 – 1705	Creating a Green IT Industry Mr. Alan Kan, Chairman of Hong Kong Linux Industry Association
1705 – 1735	Panel Discussion: "How Green Computing is essential to making Hong Kong a Green City - Response to 2007-08 HK Policy Address" Representative from IBM, Cisco, HSBC, HKLIA, CIOs
	Q &amp; A End of Conference

The above program will be subject to change without prior notice